M. there will be a meeting of the Music teachers of Central New York on the second floor of the Clark Music Bldg., for the purpose of organizing a Music Teachers' Association. The idea was outlined in a recent talk before the local music teachers by Mme. Olga Samaroff, representative of the Juilliard Foundation, the thought being to stimulate greater activity in playing music in the home. Election of officers will take place and we urge that every music teacher attend. We need your cooperation and assistance. May we please have an immediate reply as to whether or not you will be present? Cordially yours, DALE W. GREENLEAF Temporary Chairman 416 S. MUSIC TEACHERS DRAFT BYLAWS

Ten members of the Central New York Association of Music Teachers met last night in the Clark Music company's building to draw up by-laws and constitution for the new organization. A general meeting is scheduled for Monday, April 13 at the same place.

Those who formed the laws of the organization are: Mrs. Mary P. Fairlamb, M's. Jesse Nash Stover, Miss Grace White, Miss Althea Allowelt, Charles J. Heurter, Robert Koch, Herbert Rand, Earl A. Little, Harrie W. Southwick, Miss Dewey and Mr. Sackett.

Music Teachers To Elect Monday

Music teachers of Syracuse and Central New York will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock on the second floor of the Clark Music Building. At a recent meeting plans and objectives for a Music Teachers Association and a committee of ten appointed to form plans for approval tomorrow. This group has worked out an outline of the constitution and by-laws. Election of officers will also take place tomorrow.

All music teachers interested in improving conditions of teaching and creating an interest in music performance are urged to attend.
