Vote on Board of Directors

Leaving the board of directors is Amy Heyman. Thank you so much for her dedicated service!

Lana Stafford was added to the slate of the board of directors. Rosalie Spitzer made a motion to accept the slate as presented. Jim Vatter seconded the motion. All present were in favor of accepting the new slate as presented.

President's recap/report/new website

It was a very busy and successful year.

Pat went over all of our events, with great enthusiasm.

Chairpersons were recognized and thanked.

Thank you to our sponsors, the Piano and Organ Center for hosting the Music Marathon and to Artist Pianos for donating the prizes for the Piano Competition.

Pat presented the totals of the donation vase, which raised $2,935 this year.

Music camp scholarship winners and merit scholarship winner were announced. We have given over $14,000 in camp scholarships over the last 6 years.

Deb Guarneiri presented her newly patented ukulele for handicapped children, which was also on display.

A reminder was given about using Amazon Smile for easy donations to CNYAMT.

A reminder was given about sign-up sheets for upcoming events.

Patricia Box thanked everyone for the opportunity to be President. She also introduced our new president Bernadette Kessler.

Bernadette Kessler said thank you for the vote of confidence in her.

Bernadette spoke about Pat, and thanked her for being a mentor and kind friend. Pat DeAngelis said that Pat kept us in tune for the last three years. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
