GRACE ADJEI is a Liverpool High School freshman, an honors student, and has studied voice with Neva Pilgrim since September 2021. Her musical endeavors do not stop at singing, however, as she plays violin and will be participating in NYSSMA Solo Fest for her Orchestra final exam. This is her first vocal competition and first performance as a soloist.

HARPER SHUTE is a 9th-grader at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. Her performances include nearly 50 productions with Syracuse Children's Theatre since the age of 5; Syracuse Stage's productions of Beauty & the Beast (Chip) and Wizard of Oz (Lullaby League), and F-M High School's musicals Les Misérables (Young Cosette) and The SpongeBob Musical (Sardine Soloist). Harper studies with Neva Pilgrim, earned a 100 on her Level VI NYSSMA solo performance, and will attend the Open Jar Institute in NYC this summer.

ELIZABETH SHARPLES, also known as Lala, began formal voice lessons in 2017 with Sabina Krantz, who had been teaching Lala piano since 2015. Lala has performed in many vocal camps over the years. Before Covid she performed as Maizy in Seussical Jr. at Wellwood Middle School. As a current freshman at F-M High School, Lala is a member of the Choir and an audition-based jazz vocal group called Swing. She performed as a member of Spongebob the Musical this year and earned a 100 on her Level VI NYSSMA solo performance.

AVA TYLER is 15 years old and a tenth grader at Cicero-North Syracuse High School. She has been studying theater since she was 8 years old and has been in many musicals such as Newsies, Chicago, Guys and Dolls, and many more. She studies piano, dance, and has been taking voice lessons with Gayle Ross for several years. She has been in All-County Chorus and All-County Vocal Jazz, and appreciates the opportunity to participate in the CNYAMT HS Vocal competition.

MADELYNN HILT is a sophomore at CNS High School, studying voice with Gayle Ross and flute with Dana DiGennaro. She is a member of the CNS symphonic band, concert band, and Treble Threats and has participated in several musicals. This past year she was also a member of the Symphoria Youth Repertory Orchestra. Madelynn is excited to be participating in the HS Vocal competition for the second year.

HOLLY ADAMSKI is a sophomore at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. She is an active member of her school's Chorale and concert choir with Shawn Hebert, as well as a participant in the voice class. A vocal student of Laura Enslin, she has been taking lessons for a little over a year now. Recently she had the opportunity to participate in the 2022 Senior High All-County, and her school's production of The Spongebob Musical. She looks forward to having more opportunities to sing in the future.

AOIFE DOUGLAS is a sophomore at Hamilton Central School, where she is a member of the high school chorus and music co-director for the middle school musical. Aoife sang the role of Giulia in The Gondoliers at the Earlville Opera House and has performed at Colgate University--Jazz at Noon (Palace Theater), and Park United Methodist, among others. A student of Neva Pilgrim, she is working on producing an album of original compositions at SubCat Studios.

ANDREIA KRANTZ is a senior but currently studying at Onondaga Community College as a voice major with Lisa Miller. She plans to transfer to SUNY-Geneseo in the Fall as a Vocal Performance major with a minor in Piano Pedagogy. Andreia is thrilled to have this opportunity to take part in the CNYAMT competition for her senior year and has greatly enjoyed participating in it throughout her high school career.

BIANCA LUCAS, a senior at Fayetteville-Manlius High School, plans to attend Boston University this fall to study vocal performance/music education. She has been taking voice with Laura Enslin for 8 years and thanks her for her continued support. She has also been involved with flute, especially as a member of the Conference All-State Symphonic Band this past December. Bianca received 2nd in the junior division of the CNYAMT Vocal Competition last year, and 1st in both the CNYAMT Instrumental Competition and Senior Scholarship Competition this year.

ALEXANDRA DUBANIEWICZ, 18, attends Westhill HS. She has been in over 100 shows as a singer, actor, and a dancer including productions by Syracuse Opera, CNY Arts, Symphoria and Moscow Ballet. Among her performing highlights was her multimedia project with a famous Russian writer and a movie director - Mikhail Zadornov. As the winner of a singing competition, Alexandra traveled to Moscow to record a CD which culminated in a collaboration with Zadornov. She has also been involved in music theater productions, and 'M & M & Friends,' 'Musik United' and 'Incurable Romantics' that help raise money for charitable organizations, e.g. Food & Gift program for Children of N. Syracuse, Charity for Children, Southern Sudan Health Project & Hospice of CNY.

THE CNYAMT VOCAL COMPETITION COMMITTEE IS EXTREMELY GRATEFUL TO ST. DAVID'S EPISCOPAL FOR HOSTING THE 2022 WINNERS RECITAL !
